What is Lectio Divina

Traditionally, Lectio Divina is a method of praying the Scriptures, the Word of God. Though “lectio” means “to read,” the practice of Lectio Divina (Lectio for short) is much more than reading. The Church has been praying the Scriptures in this form from the beginning before literacy was widespread.

Lectio is about active listening which engenders both our response and hopefully, a lasting peace. Let’s break that down into the 4 phases or movements of Lectio Divina:

- ◇ Lectio—Reading
  - ◇ This is where we first encounter our Scripture verse or passage. We are encouraged to read the passage aloud more than once, engaging our senses of sight, speech and hearing.
- ◇ Meditatio—Meditation
  - ◇ After spending time with our Scripture, we choose a word or short phrase that is standing out to us. Perhaps it triggered a memory, a worry, or a joy. Maybe it caused us to consider the passage in a new light or highlights behaviors we need to improve upon.
- ◇ Oratio—Prayer
  - ◇ How is this word or phrase speaking to us? What is God calling us to do with the newfound knowledge or awareness.
- ◇ Contemplatio—Contemplation
  - ◇ Here we rest in God. We silence ourselves and sit in stillness as we adore our Creator, the Author of Life.

Lectio on your own

This is a guide for praying Lectio Divina on your own. The times are approximated for reference however each person is going to spend more or less time in each phase as moved by the Spirit. The Scripture references used in this journal are from The New American Bible, revised edition found at uscbb.org/bible.

- ◇ Quiet yourself. Find a place that is peaceful and comfortable.
- ◇ Lectio: Read your chosen passage or verse aloud. Read clearly, with intention and without rushing. Try not to think about placing special emphasis on any one word or phrase (as you would if reading to a group). Rather, let the words flow and feel their movement resonate around you. (approx. 5-10 minutes)
  - ◇ Ideally, read your passage or verse aloud 2-3 times.
- ◇ Meditatio: What word or phrase stood out to you after the first read through? What about in the subsequent readings? Was the same word illuminated or was your attention drawn elsewhere? (approx. 5 minutes)
  - ◇ Write your word or phrase down in your journal.
- ◇ Oratio: Using the space provided in your journal, pray and reflect on what your revealed word or phrase means to you. What is God trying to say to you, show you, teach you, in this word. If you wish, you may compose a prayer which you may write in your journal. (10 minutes).
- ◇ Contemplatio: Sit in stillness and peace, resting in the presence of our loving God. Here is where we silence our own words and reactions to the text. We allow silence to fill our mind and soul so that we might better hear the whisperings of God in our spirit. Be gentle with yourself. If you find your mind wanders, acknowledge the distraction and try to let it pass away while you turn your attention back to your contemplation. (at least 5 minutes).
